

Sycamore Park Biography

Sycamore Park is a Hammond organ-driven jazz/funk quartet based in Marin County, California. Formed in 2003, Sycamore Park performs original compositions, as well as select standards from the golden age of soul jazz. Their guiding principle is to blend the harmonic and melodic richness of jazz with the booty shaking groove of funk to create a danceable good time that appeals to a wide audience.

Sycamore Park consists of Nick Peck (organ), Sean England (drums), Joe Nemzer (bass), and Pete Fogle (guitar). All members are seasoned veterans with extensive performance, recording, and touring experience under their belts. They are currently engaged in recording material for an upcoming CD, gigging around the San Francisco Bay Area, and adding to their ever-expanding repertoire.
